12 REQUEST TO FILE BRIEF IN EXCESS OF PAGE LIMIT ALLOWED IN COURT'S STANDING ORDER;
[PROPOSED] ORDER

13 DENYING REQUEST

21 Defendants Pleasanton Unified School District, Parvin Ahmadi, and Luz
22 Cazares hereby seek permission from this Court to allow defendants to file a 25 page
23 brief in support of their motion for judgment on the pleadings. The FRCP 12(c) motion 24 has not yet been filed.

25 Defendants acknowledge the Court's standing order that briefs, with the exception of motions for summary judgment, may not exceed 15 pages. Defendants 26 also acknowledge that pursuant to the Northern District Local Rule 7-2, briefs in 27 support of motions may not in exceed 25 pages.

Here, good cause exists to increase the page limitation set forth in the Court's standing order as set forth below.

Plaintiff has filed a 162 page complaint. Although the complaint lists 14 causes of action, several of the causes of action contain “counts” or plead alternative theories of liability within a single cause of action. More specifically, the first cause of action contains five counts, the second cause of action contains four counts, the fifth cause of action contains three counts, the seventh cause of action contains two counts, and the ninth and eleventh causes of action each contain alternative theories of liability. [See table of contents to the complaint, pp. i-ii].

Accordingly, rather than setting forth 14 theories of liability, plaintiff has actually set forth 28 separate causes of action. Defendants intend to move for judgment on the pleadings to dismiss 23 of the 28 causes of action. In order to fully address each of the legal issues with respect to the numerous causes of action, and in order to adequately apprise the Court of the basis for the motion for judgment on the pleadings, defendants respectfully request that the Court allow defendants a 25 page limit for their brief, as is authorized by the Northern District Local Rule 7-2.
